Chedzoy Village Hall is owned by the residents of the Parish of Chedzoy. It was built in 1914 by the Rev George Mullins, and given to the villagers in 1937. The Hall was extended and modernised in 2002 and 2003 with the help of grants from Somerset County Council, Sedgemoor District Council, Chedzoy Parish Council, The National Lottery Community Fund and Wyvern Environmental Trust Ltd (Land Fill Tax administrators), and through contributions from the residents of Chedzoy. Further improvements to the Hall were completed in 2014, using a bequest from the Sydney Mason Collins Will Trust.
